

Commission Rules:

By contacting the artist, you have agreed you have read the artist's TOS and that you are 18+.

I will not be carding, or asking to show proof. I work off old internet terms. If you:

- Reach out to me for a service,
- Aren't acting like you are below the requested age
- Agree/imply you are of age
- Have the money to do business with

I will treat you like an adult, and I'll most likely do business with you.

TOS Last Updated: Mar 31, 2026

TOS can change at any time.

To make sure the TOS is relevant, it may change at any time. So please check for any changes that may affect you. There may be other areas that need to be added or removed to meet the needs of the artist, and improve the service for the commissioner.

Commissions are placed through email, and (major) communication is through email.

Any commission request not sent to the appropriate email will NOT be acknowledged. Accepted orders will be responded to by email. Denial emails are also sent. A receipt will be emailed to you as well once payment has been completed.

After initial emails and payments have been done, some options for communication can be extended to Instant Messengers. Any major changes must be documented in email. If other communications are accepted, pictures can be delivered Via IM, but will always be delivered via email.

Artist is allowed to turn down IM options.

Payment first; Paypal only*. No Refunds

Please send valid paypal emails so I can send an invoice if order is accepted. Order will not be started until payment is made first. Payment must be made within 5 days. If not made within 5 days, your order will be canceled, and you will have to remake the order. If paid and you refuse the finished order, you will not get a refund or the picture. Iterations are sent to the client that requires them to give feedback on the process. Finishing the picture confirms you agreed to how the process was going; supporting the no refund policy.

Please be 100% sure you want to work with me. Even if I haven't physically worked on your picture yet, this does not mean I will grant a refund. Planning out the picture, doing research, ect, is part of working on your picture. Please make sure you are also financially stable to commission me. I will not grant a refund because you did not plan properly. You are making this choice, I will still be here later. There will be no refunds.

Exceptions:

*Paypal is preferred, but there are exceptions. If physically able to, and your request was accepted, you can send payment via Zelle or Cash. Normal paypal fees will be deducted from the final price.

Crypto is also accepted. However, due to the different fee models for different coins, the paypal fees will not be deducted. This is to help cover different coin fees. Below are accepted coins:

Cryptocurrency accepted:

- XRP
- USDT
- ETH
- BTC

When selecting Crypto:

- Please remember to send the correct cryptocurrencies to their respective wallets! They do not share the same home!
- If a tag is needed (ex: XRP), please make sure you have the correct tags!
- Tags ensure your money will reach me and not get lost.
- Sending incorrect coins to the wrong wallets will get lost, and the picture will not be paid for.

Please understand the risks!

Wallet Example:

x ETH coins >>> XRP wallet

✓ ETH coins >>> ETH wallet

Payment Plan policy and fees

As with any payment plan, the fees come from the convenience it provides. Splitting the payment comes at a cost to the Artist which can hurt their profits. A middle ground is created via fees to help mitigate that while still allowing convenience to the client.

Payment plans are only for certain commission types and at a certain starting prices. Payment plans allow you to get convenience of paying the due amount within a set time range. While convenient for the customer, it comes at an inconvenience for the artist. This includes having to mitigate extra used time of overhead fees, processing fees, and platform fees and some additional other fees to bring convenience to the customer.

Depending on the work, payment plans can range from 2 months - 6 months. Depending on the payment plan, the price, and the project, a fee will be applied to each month.

Although this is an option, Payment plans can be denied.

Changes to Commission requests can be denied or accepted.

Additional fees will be added if you want changes done to the request once payment is received. If changes are requested, your drawing will be halted until payment for changes are made. If payment is not made within 72 hours(unless there is communication stating otherwise), your picture will be continued without changes, and payment for changes will not be accepted.

This also included the state of your picture. If you did not provide proper refs for your picture, I have the right to decline your request or give you what I can deal with. If the commissioner is rude/disrespectful, I will not tolerate it, stop, and give you whatever was done. No changes will be made, you cannot pay for additional changes, and you will be put on a blacklist. Any commission requests will be auto-denied.

Completed Pictures: Once a picture is done, you are allowed 2 free small changes within 48 hours of the completed picture time.

After that, based on revision request size, an additional fee will be requested.

This does not apply if you are blacklisted, or aren't in good standing with the artist.

Please have patience. Each drawing takes time.

There will be communication, and you will see current progress. Depending on your selected commission type, you will have multiple times to give feedback and make changes.

I do work a bit slow, and there are times there may be a long queue. If you do not hear from me, feel free to message me. I work "first come-first serve". I'll let you know where you are in the queue. Everyone's request is different, and some may take more time. If you need a rush order, let me know and we can work something out. Rush orders fee depends on the request and my availability.

While these time frames are long, it is due to my availability and trying to squeeze everyone in and also deal with irl issues. Although, if a client is on hold, I do move onto the next person until I can resume the other person's picture. There are many variables for this. It is very important that you have the refs, and a clear idea of what you want so I can finish the pictures in a timely manner. If there is a lot of guessing, or having to figure out what you want, it will make the process a lot longer.

Include any image references

Character art, clothes, poses, mood, Backgrounds, hair-- these all help me, and helps cut down the wait time.

I am allowed to turn down orders.

Please be understanding and respectful. SFW and Ecchi requests are allowed, however; I am allowed to turn down either of them for whatever reason.

Image ownership is not passed down.

Commissions are only paid request pictures. Image ownership is not passed down, or granted to the client. Please do not use it for branding or any other purpose that requires ownership of the picture. With the new rise of NFT and AI, and the confusion of ownership, I want to make it clear that the pictures are not owned by the client.

Unless an agreement has been made, and the necessary fees have been paid to give up/share ownership, I, the artist, still have full ownership of the picture. This goes for limited private pictures as well. Once the agreed limited private time terms have passed, I have full right to post, or edit the picture if chosen to.

The client is allowed to post the image as well, but cannot use it for monetary gain. This also includes no AI learning on pictures I created.

Private Picture policy and fees

You can request private pictures for projects, or gifts for people. Private pictures are an additional fee. This fee is noted on the commission page.

You can always refresh the number of months you need for private pictures (up to 36 months) if the original time limit wasn't enough.

Due to the nature of this type of work, I cannot promise 100% private images, as I do ask for feedback from other artists. So please note this is specifically based on posting to social media.

The private picture policy starts once the picture is finished. There are 3 ways the private policy is finished or disregarded:

- Picture is completed and Private time duration has been completed, and no refreshes were made.
- Client has posted the picture on social media, revoking its private picture status
- Client has been blacklist, and is not being serviced anymore.

Please note that if the client revokes the private picture status early, there are no refunds for the leftover time. Please be sure you know how much time you need.

Rush Orders

If a Rush Order is needed, please make sure to request this ahead of time. Depending on how soon you need the item, it can range from %20 of the final price - 50% of the final price.

Automatically Denied Request:

- Cluttered/overly detailed characters
- Real people
- Political/controversial topics

Sending a Request confirms you have read and understood the entire TOS. TOS, prices, fees and offers are subject to change.

Additional fees may apply based on request. Especially for Special Orders.

Email given MUST be connected to a Paypal account for invoice.
